Our 50th Year

It's May, the month of spring conferences and sunshine. I'll have some of each, please. If you plan to attend the Long Island Library Conference on May 5, please come by our booth and say "hello." That's one of my favorite get-togethers. The organizing committee does a terrific job of keeping us all -- vendors and attendees -- well-fed and mingling. On May 17-18, I am deviating from my usual schedule. I like my New Jersey Library Conference in Long Branch. However, I am being lured to Atlantic City by the promise of seeing some of my funniest and most interesting library customers. I can't wait to catch up with them and you, if you're going.

Although the talk at our house is of AP exams and prom dresses, I still have my eye on the upcoming video game releases. There are some must-haves coming out this month. Our Spring Supplement is now available. If you would like a copy mailed to you, please email me (molly@klise.com) and I'll make sure that happens. Feel free to forward this newsletter on to a colleague who would like to know about new gaming title options.

Remember what I said about our new website being ready by May 1? Well, I can't even talk about that. Next month, friends, or bust.

Happy Mother's Day to all those who are celebrating. I plan to spend the morning enjoying our traditional Mother's Day brunch and the afternoon spreading mulch. Isn't that a perfect day?
