

Happy election day. Should we talk about video games instead? I don't know. Maybe. Yes, let's.

Sure, we have plenty of video games being released this month. I spoke with hundreds of librarians at the New York library conference last week. Many of them were interested in our Video Game Standing Order Program. If you are interested in streamlining this process, send me email and I'll make sure you get the details.

We have a new Fall Supplement available. You can download it from our website or we would be happy to mail a copy to you. Check out the Printable Catalogs section of our website or email info@crimsoninc.com.

We will end this month with a Thanksgiving break. My daughter is getting her wisdom teeth out on the Wednesday before Thanksgiving, so turkey soup is on our menu. We are hoping for a smooth recovery over the long weekend.

While we're talking Thanksgiving, I must say that almost every day I give thanks for our wonderful library and school customers. For 51 years, we have enjoyed working with you. Thank you for making 2016 another terrific year for Thomas Klise/Crimson Multimedia. It is never, ever a dull day at the office. We are grateful.
