Our 50th Year

Happy summertime to all! We celebrated by doing our physical inventory a bit earlier this year. Our warehouse is well-stocked and ultra-organized in advance of the fall onslaught of new titles.

The publishers took a break for July, with just a handful of new titles being released. There are a couple of Switch titles which have proven to be a breakout platform in the library world. You can find all of the Switch titles on our website.

We are starting to get ready for fall conference season. I'll post our schedule in an upcoming newsletter. We're planning to add a few state library conferences where we will – after more than fifty years in business – be first time exhibitors. That should be fun. I look forward to hitting the road sometime after the beach towels are all stowed away for the season. Until then, I'm going to enjoy the sunshine.
