March 2018

OUR 52ND YEAR

BEWARE THE IDES OF MARCH.

Thank goodness we'll have that dangerous day behind us by the time we see you all in late March at the PLA conference. If you plan to be in Philadelphia, be sure to stop by booth 1525 to say "hello" and pick up some swag.

March brings a slew of new video game titles including plenty of the ever-popular E-, E10- and T-rated titles. This is an ideal time to refresh your children's and YA collections.

As you can see, we continue to hone our Crimson Ink format. We're getting there. April showers will bring May flowers and, perhaps, a final "look" for our fave way to announce new releases. Stay tuned.
