September 2019 OUR 53RD YEAR

AHHH, SEPTEMBER. Lovely to see you. It's nice to see the school buses rolling and the less-than-overflowing streets of Mystic. There's even a little breeze in the air. I love it all.

Speaking of overflowing, I haven't seen a video game release month like September in a long, long time. All the blockbuster sports titles — PES 20, FIFA 20 and NBA 2K20 — are coming out within days of each other. We've got Borderlands, WRC 8, and so much more. The titles will overflow the print version of the newsletter, so be sure to subscribe to the email to see everything that is available for circulation.

Since we're in the back-to-school spirit here, we're working on a face lift to our website. The functionality won't change much. The updates are mostly cosmetic although, if there's anything you'd like to see, shoot me an email and I'll check it out with the tech team.

Enjoy the lovely month.
