October 2019 OUR 54TH YEAR

HAPPY HALLOWEEN! We've got a terrifying number of video games coming your way this month. Don't worry, though. Your patrons will appreciate the sweet sight of shelves filled with the newest titles.

If ordering video games has become a spooky item on your 'to do' list, fear not. We would be happy to set you up with a standing order so that your video games will arrive each month without any worry. No commitment. You can start and stop anytime.

We also have custom processing, security cases, replacement artwork and — as always — free publisher replacement cases. Let us know what we can do to make your video game collection a treat instead of a trick.

Visit our website at www.crimsoninc.com to sign up for our monthly e-newsletter, check out the new titles that are suitable for library circulation, and get a preview of titles coming in the near future.

If you are attending this month's ILA conference in Tinley Park, please come visit me at booth 509.

Enjoy this spooky month. I'm looking forward to my annual bag of candy corn. (No sharing!)
