January 2020

OUR 54TH YEAR

HAPPY NEW YEAR! 2020 has quite a ring to it. We're starting off the new decade just as we did the last decade, with new video games. What else?

January is an extremely light release month. Enjoy the break between the hundreds of new fall titles and the upcoming roster of releases.

We are looking forward to seeing many of you in Nashville next month. I love PLA! It's my favorite conference. The lineup of speakers is going to tempt me away from the booth, but I will persevere. Please do stop by booth 322 to say "hello."

If you have questions about titles, standing orders, security cases or processing, please don't hesitate to get in touch!
