March 2020

OUR 54TH YEAR

HAPPY MARCH! It was fun to see so many of your smiling faces at PLA. It was a terrific conference and I think we should have the conference in Nashville as often as possible. If New York is the city that never sleeps, Nashville is the city that never stops singing. We had loads of fun.

Now we're turning out attention to ... what else? New video games for March. There are quite a few new titles that are going to be best sellers. Order early to get them close to day of release.

Hmm. What else is happening? Oh, a lot of behind the scenes updates and upgrades and that sort of thing. New people, new equipment, new systems. It's all good. We're in spring cleaning mode and things are looking spiffy around here.

Please get in touch if you would like to receive our monthly title listings via spreadsheet. Or if you want to talk about updating your collection with custom wrappers. You know, the usual.

Have a lovely month. Spring is coming!
