June 2020 OUR 54TH YEAR

WELCOME TO JUNE IN THE TIME OF CORONAVIRUS. We are up and running in a socially-distancing way as, I know, are many of our libraries. We're all doing our best, eh? And still wearing those masks? Yep.

June brings a number of new video game titles. We have them. We can ship them. Please let us know if you are open to receive standing orders.

June is also the month of my birthday and, more importantly, the month that my baby turns 21. Many of you have been on this journey with us, since the time of Flora's adoption from China. At ALA and PLA, she has been a champion hander-outer of catalogs because, face it, who can turn down a charming tot? She's home again, tossed back from MIT mid-year, and managing an uncertain future with good cheer and tolerance, even when her mom suggests we learn some Tik Tok dances. (Not going to happen.)

And in these uncertain times, the library industry has come together to move forward in a thoughtful, sensible way. I couldn't be more impressed by the various plans and strategies that you have shared with me over the past weeks. Libraries are demonstrating, in real time, how much local communities rely on the materials and services they provide. It fills me with hope.

So, happy June, everyone. At our house, we will have cake for breakfast — as we do — on June 6 and June 16, celebrating birthdays and looking forward to the future. I wish sweet days and good health to all.
