August 2020

EVEN THOUGH THIS SUMMER HAS BEEN UNUSUAL in a thousand different ways, we march on to August. It's the month of sunscreen and ice cream and, later on, back-to-school shopping. Let's concentrate on the ice cream and sunscreen, shall we? Who knows what September will bring so we might as well enjoy ourselves. Mint chocolate chip for me, please. Two scoops. Why the heck not?

As libraries reopen in myriad ways, the video game collections are a popular resource. People have a little more free time and a lot more stay-at-home time so video games are a fun way to relax with the family. This month, we welcome the 2021 versions of Madden NFL and PGA Tour, both family favorites. As you can see, the August list is robust.

Let us know if you need any assistance with collection development or processing. We are willing to put aside the ice cream — for a moment — if we can be of assistance.
