June 2021 OUR 55TH YEAR

I SWOON FOR JUNE! It's a big birthday month in our family — even the dog has a birthday in June — but this year it's even more monumental as my daughter graduates from MIT. Hooray! The past four years have gone by in a flash, except for that COVID part which felt much too long. We will be celebrating all month. Congratulations to all the graduates and their families!

Now, on to the important business of video games. Hah. There are a lot of new titles coming out all through the month. We are shipping pretty close to day of release so get those pre-orders in for fastest shipping.

We start our summer schedule with extended hours Monday through Thursday so that we can enjoy our free Fridays. Ahhhh ... summertime. Also, we will be closed for inventory the week of July 5th. Although we will be counting in the warehouse, we will continue to process orders and will respond to email. Please pardon, in advance, our slower response times.

Happy sunshine-y June!
