August 2022 OUR 56TH YEAR

AH, AUGUST. THE DOG DAYS. My dogs prefer the cooler months so they're out of step with their peers. They won't even keep me company in the garden for more than a few minutes. They are definitely a little slower as the temps rise.

You know what's not slowing down with the heat? The video game publishers. August is a full on flood of new titles including Little League World Series Baseball, Madden 23, a new Pac-Man and soooo many more. Check them out here and at crimsoninc.com.

When you place your orders, you can always let us know if you need any free publisher replacement cases. We have them ready to send your way. And if you need locking cases, we can't send them for free but we always have them in stock.

Please get in touch if you want to start a standing order (no commitment/contract required) or talk about updating your video game collection.

Stay hydrated!
