September 2023 OUR 58TH YEAR

HAPPY SEPTEMBER, EVERYONE. This is a glorious month all over the country and one of my favorites. I'm going on a bit of a sailing holiday later in the month (be kind to this landlubber, Lake Superior!) but the crackerjack TK/CM team will make sure things keep humming along.

There are WAY too many new titles this month. Let me call your attention to a few. The new FIFA release is called FC 24, so don't miss that one. We have the NBA 2K24 Kobe Bryant Edition which is the best one for library circulation. Starfield is the title that EVERYBODY is talking about. There is truly something for everyone this month.

I also wanted to alert you to something new that we're doing here. We are starting to put the games up on our website three months pre-release. In the past, we hesitated to do that since the release dates are so fickle. But now that the game publishers are producing in quantities that allow them to sell out their complete inventory, we want to make sure that our libraries get what they need not just at release but also in the future. To that end, we're filling our warehouse to the rafters but I would encourage you to think ahead, check the website and order early if you know what you want.

I hope you all enjoy this beautiful month. Let the school buses roll!
