January 2025 OUR 59TH YEAR

I JUST LOVE THE ENERGY THAT COMES WITH A FRESH START, don't you?

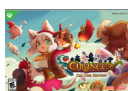

Santa spoiled me this year with a couple of pairs of golf socks, some fancy golf balls, a shiny coffee maker, jewelry, and a few other indulgent treats. Oh, and I treated myself to a new pair of tap shoes; my tap dancing class kicks off this month! No excuses for not jumping into 2025 with all the excitement and enthusiasm. Let's do this!

As for January, we're seeing a more manageable flow of new titles. Phew! After the avalanche of releases last fall, it's a relief. Clearly, video games are still going strong, and it looks like they're here to stay as a staple in library collections. If you burned through your budget last September, now's a great time to catch up on those titles you missed.

Need any adjustments for the new year? Whether it's a standing order, security cases, or any other way to keep your video game collection fresh and hassle-free, we're here to help!

Here's to surviving and thriving in 2025!
