April 2025 OUR 59TH YEAR

IT'S THAT TIME OF YEAR AGAIN ... NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK! Now, more than ever, supporting our local libraries is of paramount importance. Whether it's through monetary donations, volunteering, or simply attending and participating in events, there are countless ways to show our love for these community treasures. Most of you have dedicated your careers to nurturing our libraries, and for that, I extend heartfelt thanks and applause!

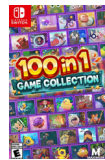

This month, there are plenty of exciting new games to help boost library attendance. You can check out these titles, along with upcoming May releases, all available for review and order on our website now.

Looking ahead, I'm thrilled to be supporting the library community at the ALA conference in late June. We're headed back to Philly which is a fun and manageable conference city. If you'll be attending, please stop by and visit us at booth 523.

Wishing you all a wonderful April! With the start of golf season, hiking season, gardening season, beach season, and so much more, let's embrace the beauty of spring!
