June 2025 OUR 59TH YEAR

HELLO SUMMER!

Welcome to a month full of sunshine, school vacations, ALA, and—yes—my birthday (not necessarily in that order of importance!). With shifting schedules and more time spent outdoors, June is always a dream of a month, especially for those of us emerging from another long winter.

EXCITING NEWS: SWITCH 2 GAMES ARE HERE!

The first batch of Switch 2 games is finally being released this month. We're putting together a handy flyer that breaks down the different configurations, clarifying which titles are compatible with circulation and which are not. Look for this flyer in your shipment boxes and at ALA. As always, feel free to email us with any questions—happy to help!

SEE YOU AT ALA!

If you're heading to ALA, be sure to visit us at Booth #523 in the "Marketplace" (formerly known as the Exhibitor Hall). We've gone quaint. We might not have candles, notecards, or sourdough loaves, but we do have information about video games! It's always a pleasure to meet face-to-face, so come by and say hello.

SUMMER OFFICE HOURS

Starting this month, we're shifting to our summer schedule: Monday through Thursday in the office. If you contact us on a Friday, we'll do our best to get back to you promptly—but if the sun is shining, you might not hear from us until Monday. We'll be out enjoying the Mystic blue skies and warm weather!

Wishing you a bright and joyful start to summer,

Molly Klise, President
